

Web Publishing 1 (DM60) Test #1

(Take-home test due at the beginning of the 2nd class;

-4 points if one week late; -8 points if two weeks late ; not accepted 3 weeks late)

All work is to be done individually. Do not post any answers in the online discussion forum.

This test is worth 20 points.

Answers can be found at the TeacherJohn Web site at <http://teacherjohn.com>

Name: _____ Date: _____

1) Your work for this does not need to validate. True or false? _____

2) What is the name of the recommended Windows text editor? _____

3) What is the name of the recommended Mac text editor? _____

4) What percentage of your grade for this course is from your discussion forum participation?

5) What are the dates of the 14 deadlines for posts to the discussion forum?

6) What is the maximum number of points possible for extra credit for the term? _____

7) Underscores can be used when naming a Web page file. True or false? _____

8) What is the URL of your homepage on the webhawks.org server?

http://_____

9) Where are the instructor's office hours held? _____

10) When grades are posted, students are listed by first four digits of their student number. True or false? _____

11) When emailing the instructor, how should the subject line start? _____

12) What is your Webhawks user name for this course?

13) Homework assignments are accepted up to one week late. True or false? _____

14) Your FTP client used for this course must be capable of using the SFTP protocol. True or false?

15) What percentage of your grade for this course is from your exercises? _____

16) What is the temporary generic Cabrillo network password for fall 2017? _____

17) What must be the file name of a home page on webhawks.org? _____

18) What percentage of your grade for this course is from your final project? _____

19) What does FTP stand for? _____

20) Who invented the World Wide Web? _____